

About Us

For over 20 years the John Walter Cape Community Band is honored to be recognized as the Community Concert Band of Cape May County, NJ. Created in 1996 by retired high school band director John Walter, the group is made up of volunteer musicians from the surrounding mid-Atlantic area.

Join Us

Today, members include current and former music educators, business professionals, retirees and students from local elementary and high schools ... all with a common interest ... a love of performing music and entertaining others. If you play an instrument, come join the fun!

Support Us

The Band has an ongoing need for funding. As a 501(c)3 corporation, the Band is non-profit with a modest budget. Ongoing expenses include insurance, concert accessories, advertising, printing costs, music purchases and uniforms. If you would like to support our Band, its outreach programs, local culture and music education, kindly send your tax-deductible contribution today to:

Outreach Programs

The Band's "music excellence" initiative encourages young artists to perform with our group where they are challenged by stimulating song lists and mentored by some of the area's finest musicians.

In addition, Band members engage in outreach programs that support the performing arts as well as several that provide assistance to families in Cape May County. These include:

Play It Again Program

Band members collect and refurbish gently used instruments and offer these to local schools with music programs.

Scholarship Program

The John Walter Band awards music scholarship(s) to deserving graduating high school seniors living in Cape May County involved in any music or performing arts discipline.

Food Bank Support Program

Our audiences are urged to bring non-perishable items to selected performances. Donations are delivered to local food banks and shelters.
