

About Us

For over 20 years, the John Walter Cape Community Band is honored to be recognized as the Community Concert Band of Cape May County, NJ. Created in 1996 by retired high school band director John Walter, the group is made up of volunteer musicians from the surrounding mid-Atlantic area.

Join Us

Today, members include current and former music educators, business professionals, retirees and students from local elementary and high schools ... all with a common interest ... a love of performing music and entertaining others. If you play an instrument, come join the fun!

Support Us

The Band has an ongoing need for funding. As a 501(c)3 corporation, the Band is non-profit with a modest budget. Ongoing expenses include insurance, concert accessories, advertising, printing costs, music purchases, and uniforms for new members. If you would like to support our Band, its outreach programs, local culture and music education, please consider making a tax-deductible contribution.

- Director's Circle: $300 plus
- Platinum Sponsor: $100 - $299
- Gold Sponsor: $50 - $99
- Friend of the Band: $10 - $49

The Band also greatly appreciates your endorsement if your company offers a Matching Grant Program. Our contributors receive acknowledgement at concert venues, on our website along with invitations to all John Walter Band events. And of course, you have our sincere THANKS!

Support Our

Outreach Programs

In addition to performing live concerts, the John Walter Band and its members are devoted to several community outreach programs that support the arts and families in Cape May County. These include:

Play It Again Program

Band members collect and refurbish gently used instruments and offer these to local schools with music programs.

Scholarship Program

The John Walter Band awards scholarships to deserving graduating high school seniors living in Cape May County involved in any music or performing arts discipline.

Food Bank Support Program

Our audiences are encouraged to bring non-perishable items to selected performances. Donations are delivered to local food banks and shelters.
